

The KeyWay

Secretary's Notes

The "Claytons' Petanque" evening began with President Rob welcoming members, and 13 of their partners, to the meeting. A special welcome was extended to Sue North who, suitably attired for Petanque, travelled from Waiheke to join us. Also welcomed were Rod Ellis from Half Moon Bay, Luca, and Keith Morris from the Area PR Committee.

Keith was there to promote a golf tournament to be held at the Pakuranga Country Club on Monday next, 12 November, commencing with a BBQ at 11:30am.

For your info: -

- A generous donation has been received from Ian Riddell who is missing his evenings in Rotary.
- 'Sticky' labels giving updated details for the Club Handbook are available from the Secretary. These will be available for collection by the name badges on arrival at Rotary should you not have a set as yet.
- A card has been received from the Blood Bank expressing thanks to our club for its support with the recent collection.
- There are still a number of tickets available for the Howick Little Theatre evening next week. We need to sell all tickets or it is a cost to the Club. Please invite friends and/or family. It will be a good show and a very good laugh. Contact Bill Charkow urgently for more tickets.

- Gavin Green won the 'have-a-go raffle with John Osborne second.
- Heather Savory and Bruce Burton won the meat/wine raffles.

Pre Rob closed the meeting with what was really an interesting and perhaps very appropriate parting thought, following on from the Trivial Pursuit Quiz ably organised by PP Brian Hanlon and Bill Charkow.

"Oh no NZ. I'm not smarter than a 10 year old!" (That may well be true, but it's very hard for a schoolteacher to have to admit!)
